Friends

I hope today will be a lighter highway
For friends are found on every road.
Did you ever think of any better way
For the lost and weary travellers to go?

Making friends for the world to see
Let the people know you got what you need
With a friend at hand you will see the light
If your friends are there then everything's alright.

It seems to me a crime that we should age
These fragile times should never pass us by
A time we never can or shall erase
For friends together watch their childhood fly.

US AND THEM
FINALE

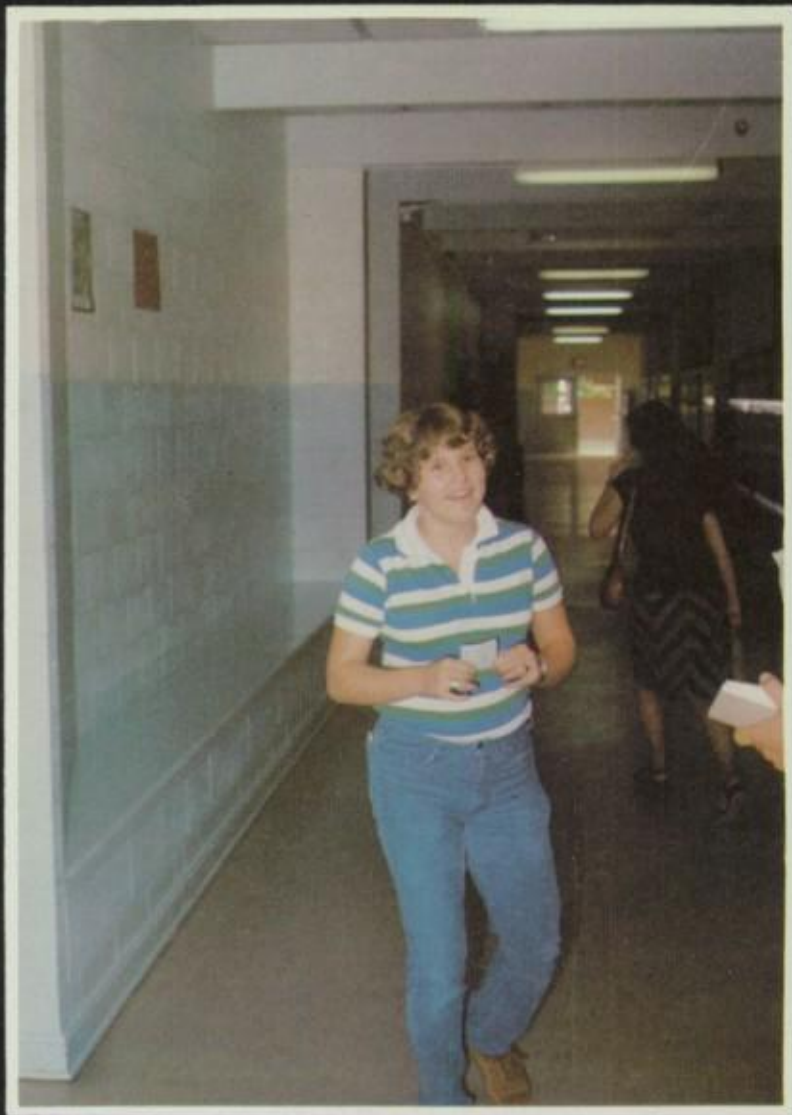

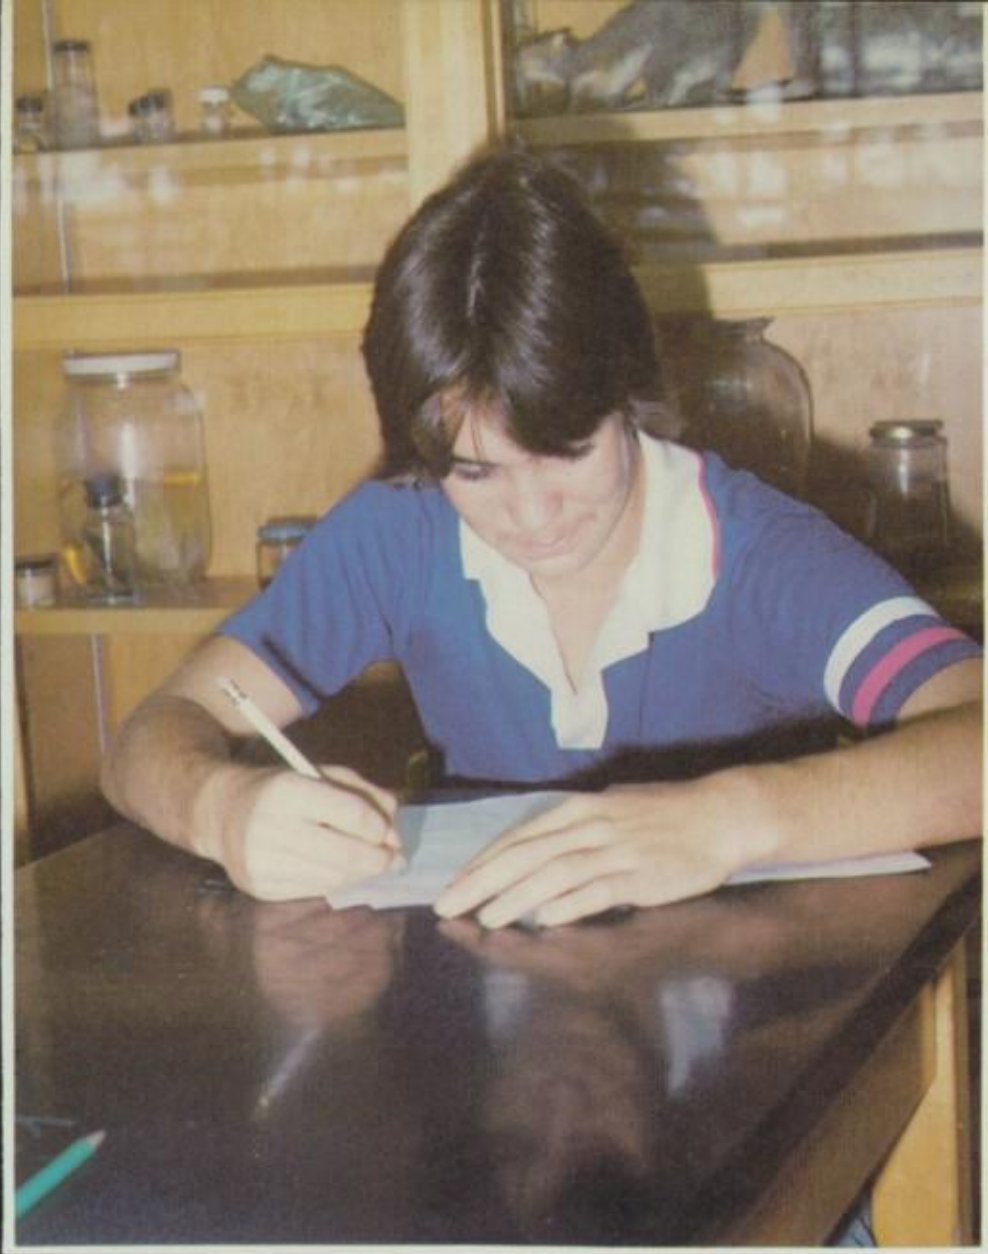

OUR FOUNDATION OF LOVE
 To touch another's heart with love,
 Bestowed upon the promise of Returning all the caring words
 And not mere empty words to gain
 A true embrace of these two souls—
 Can give unto our broken lives
 Direction in the blackened night.

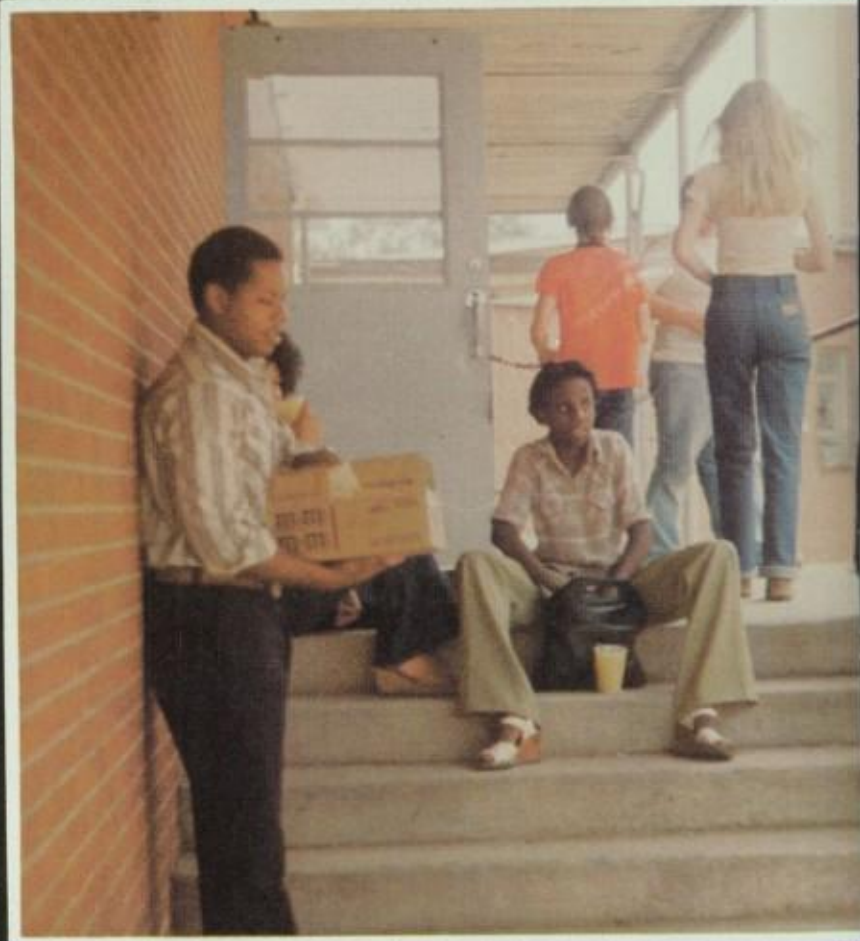

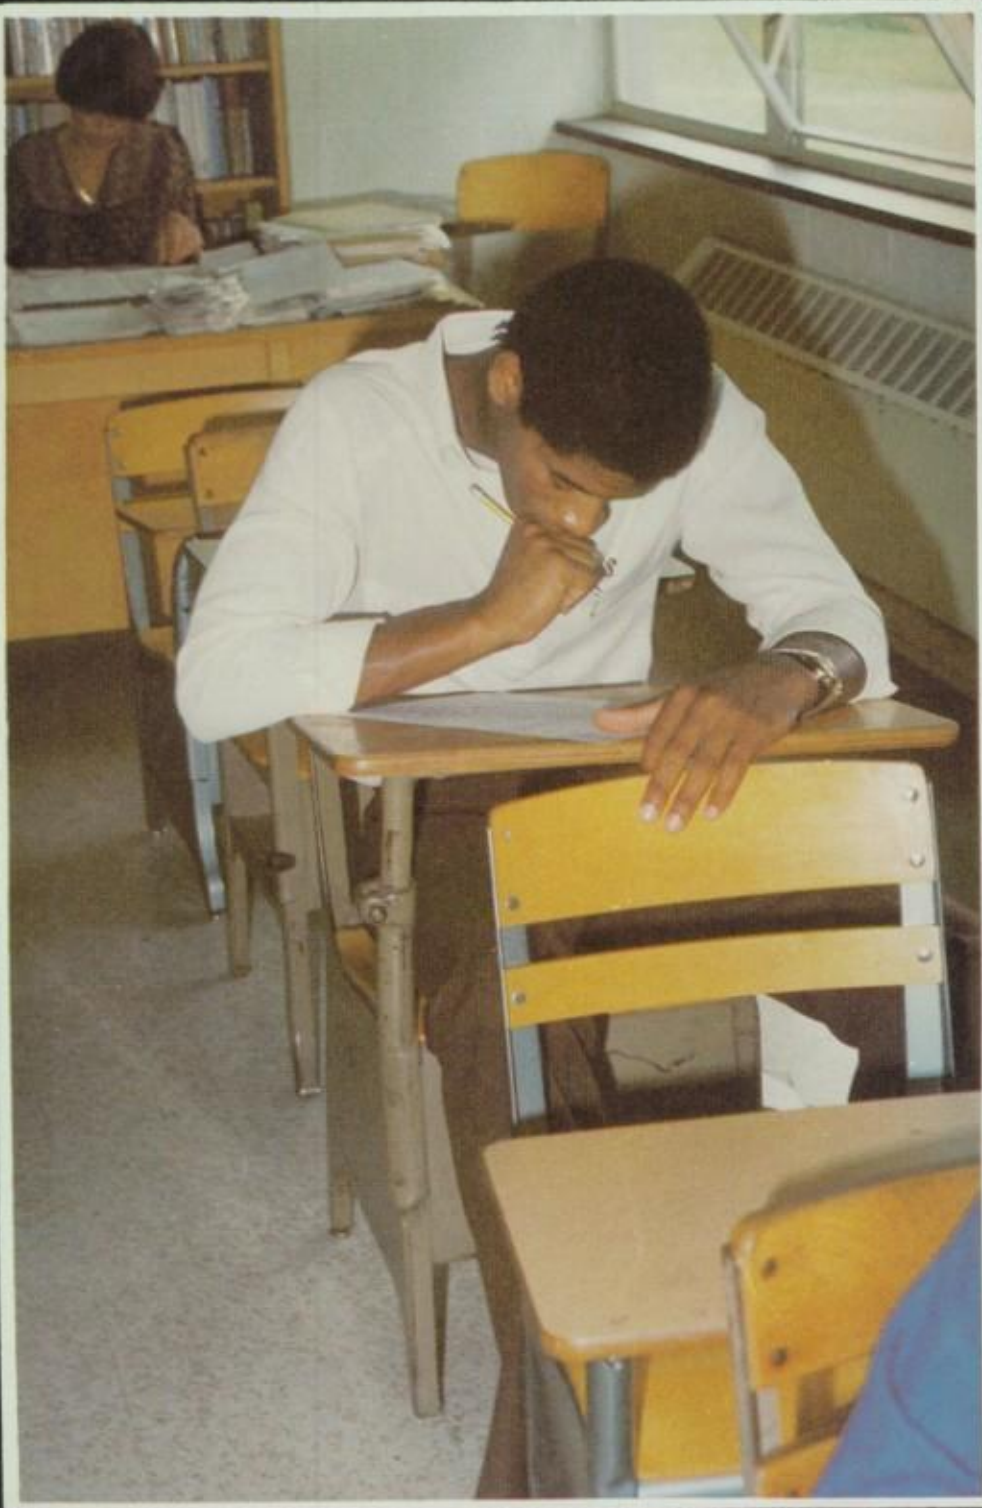

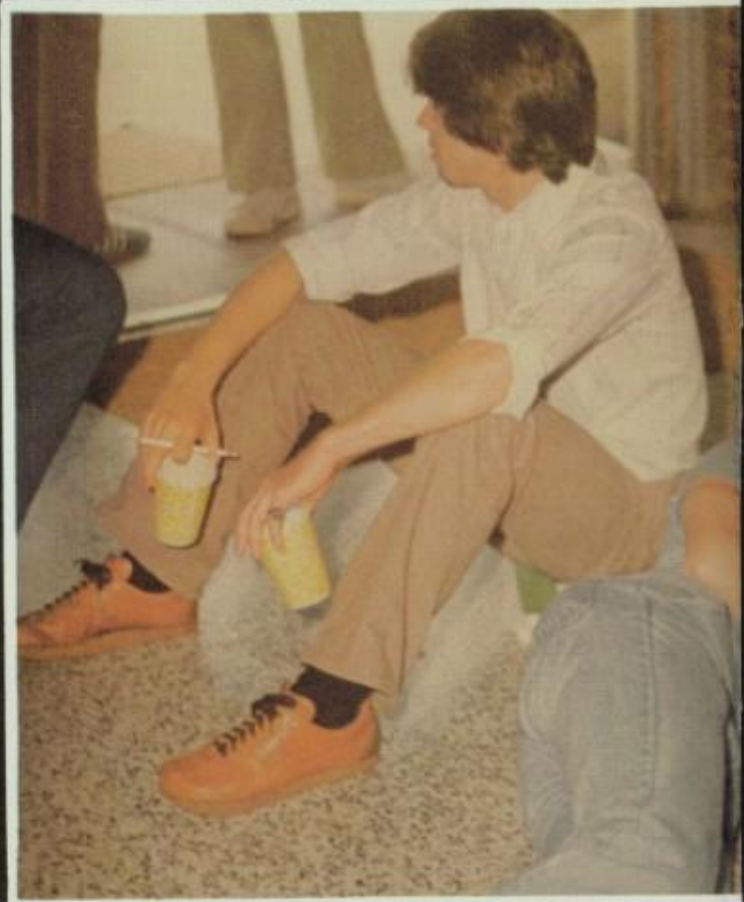

We cannot try to be the sea,
Pulled madly by a tide so strong
Our lives are lost amidst a shore
Of grains of dreams, thrown by the wind.
But we must try to be the wind,
Arranging all the sands of hopes
To form a place where we can live.

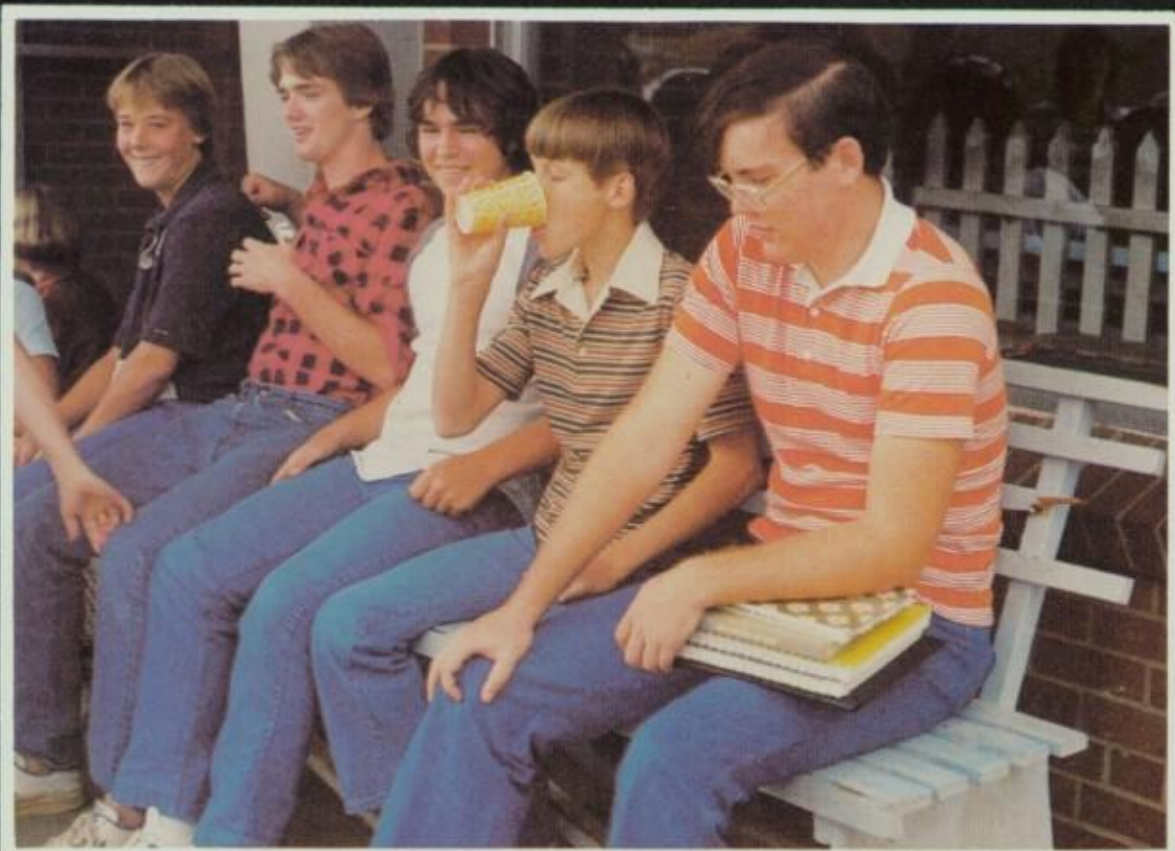

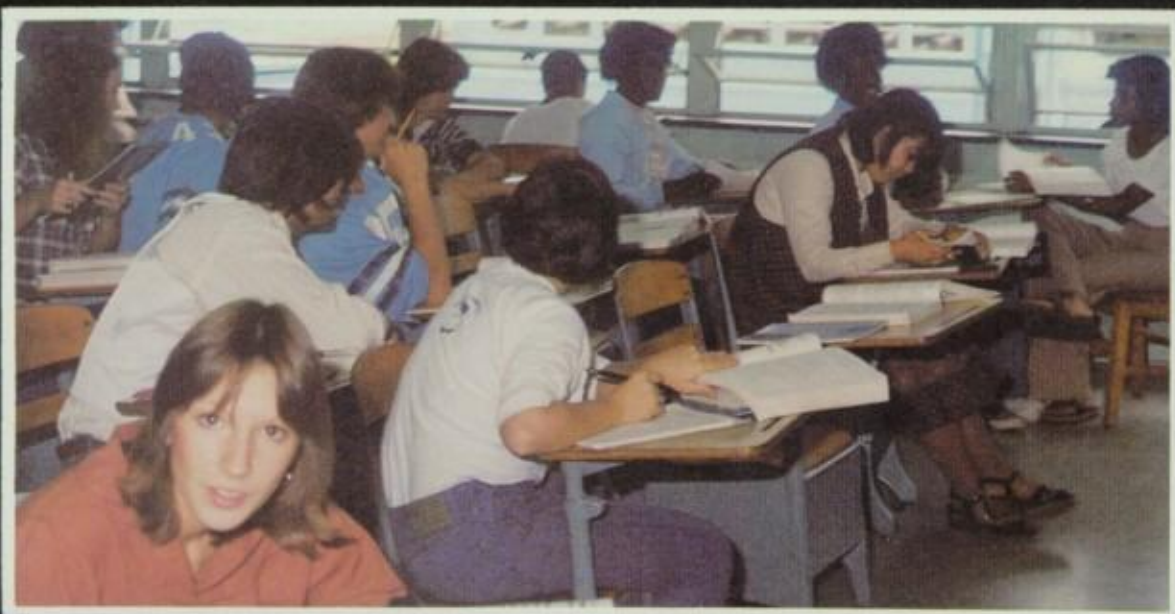

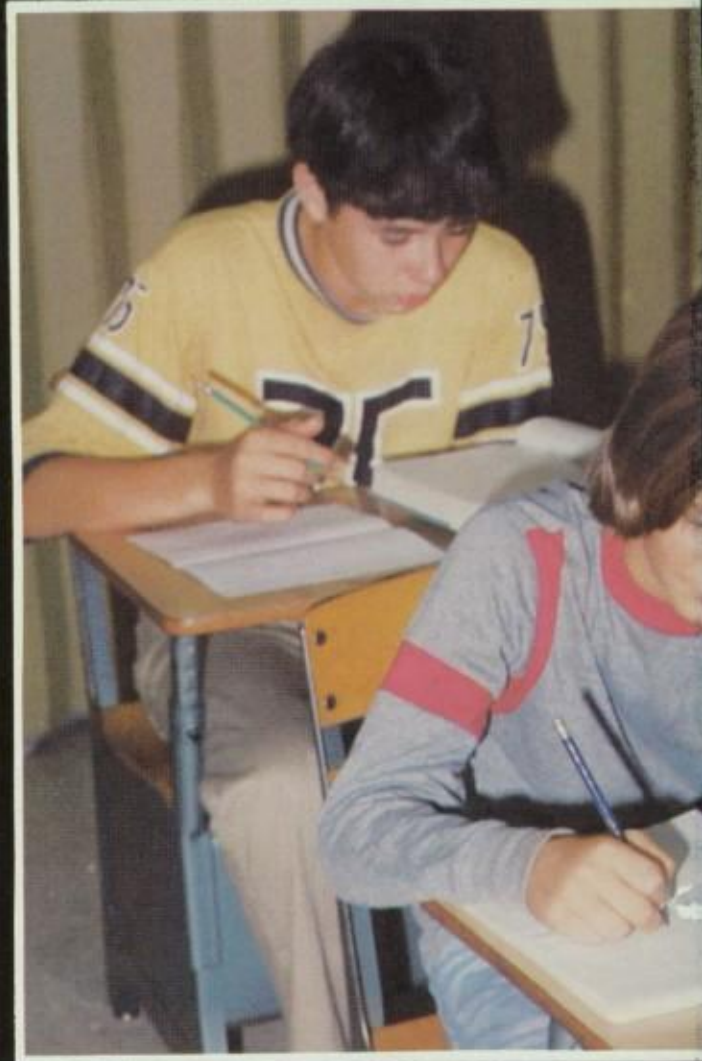

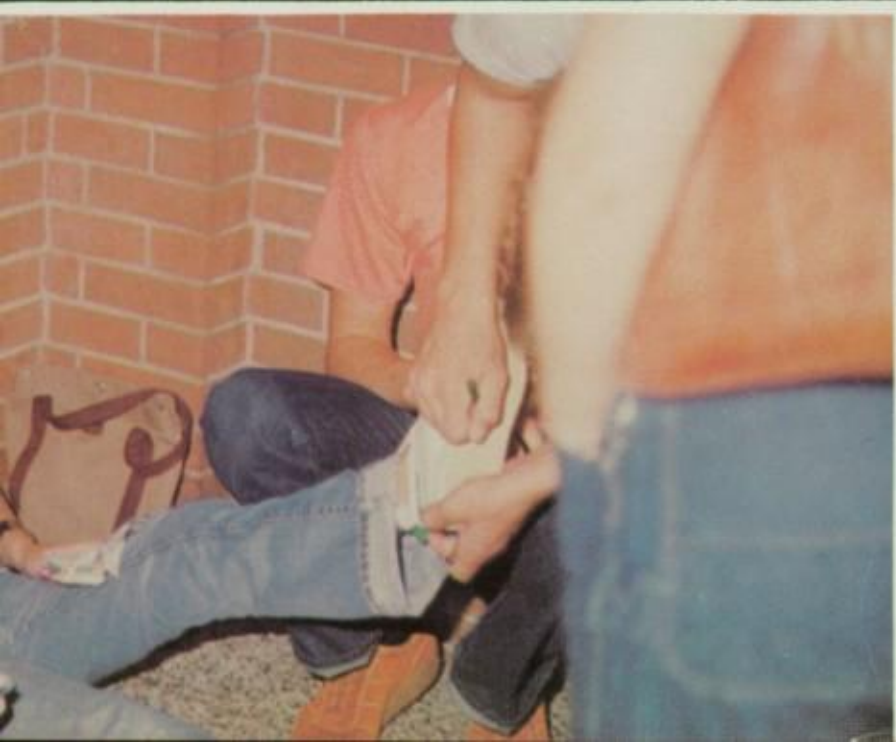

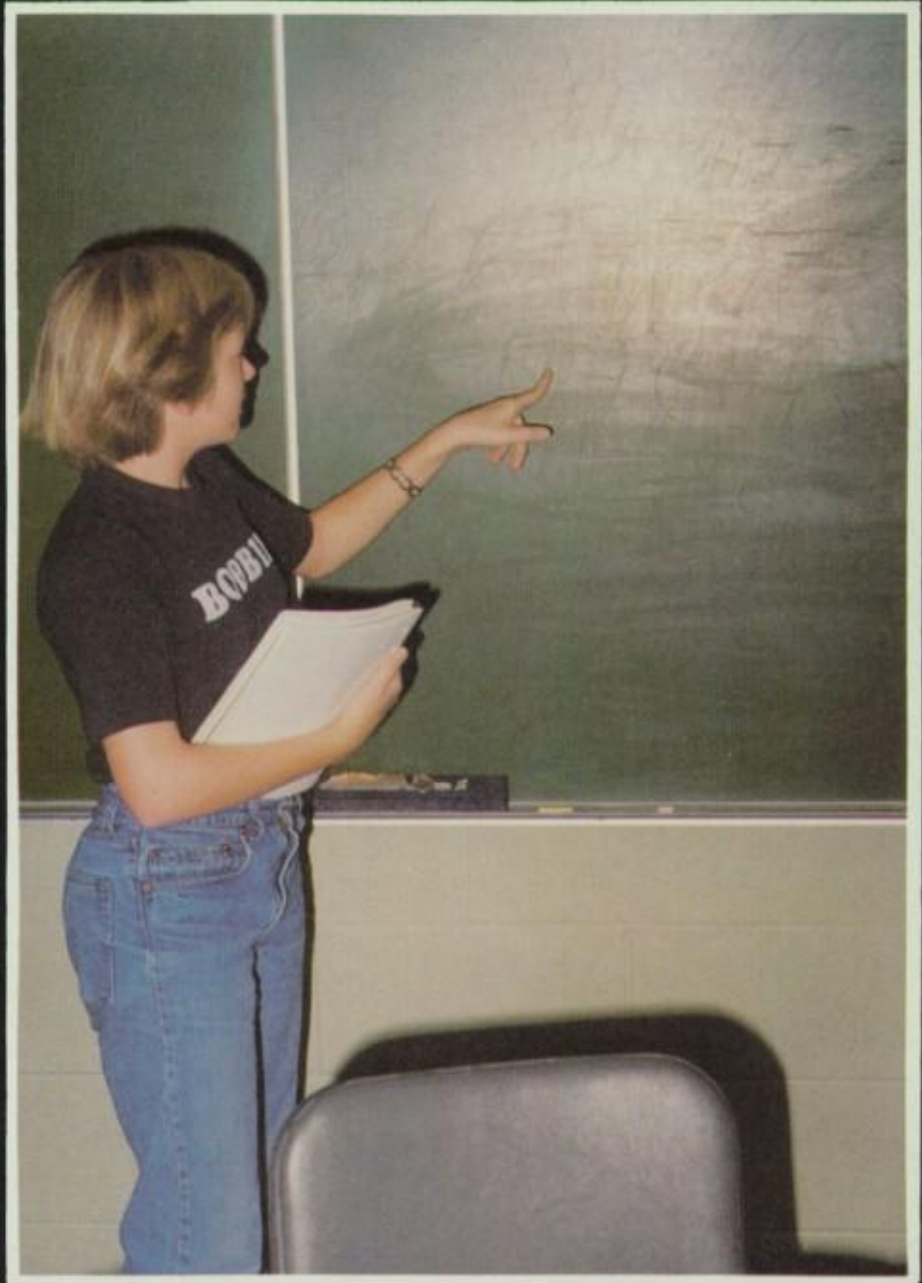

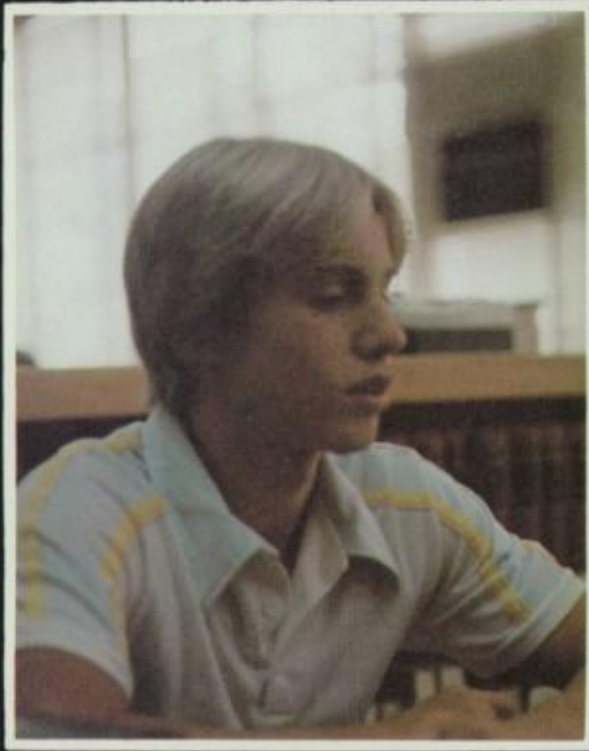

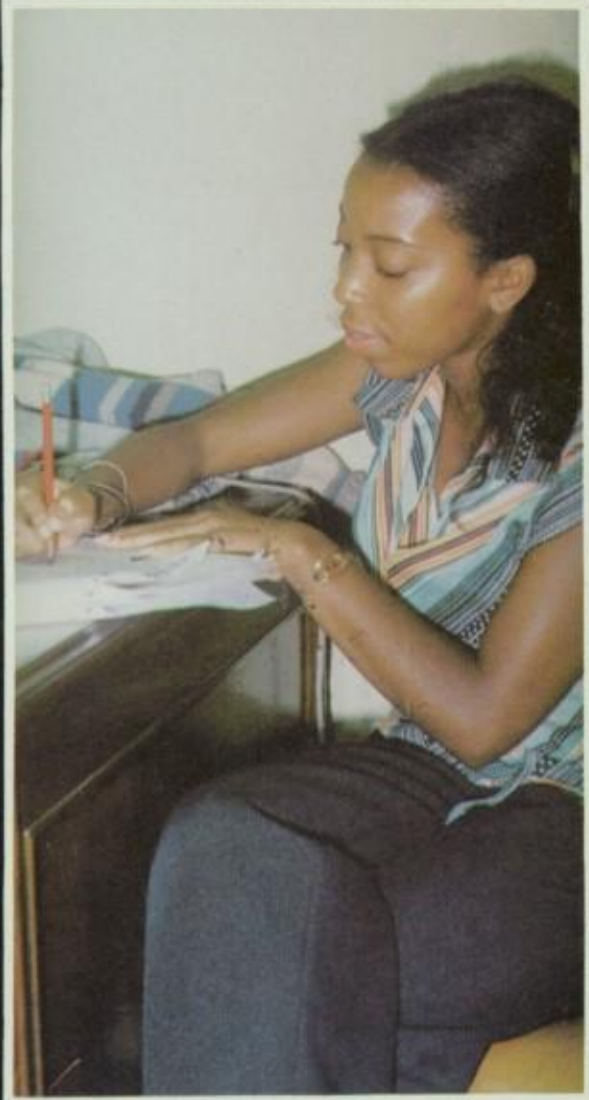

Let's build a castle in the sand—
 Call our fortress the guardian
 Of our love, resisting the tide
 Of life, which tries to wash away
 All we've made together. Unite
 Our hearts, and we can stand against
 The water's force and never part.

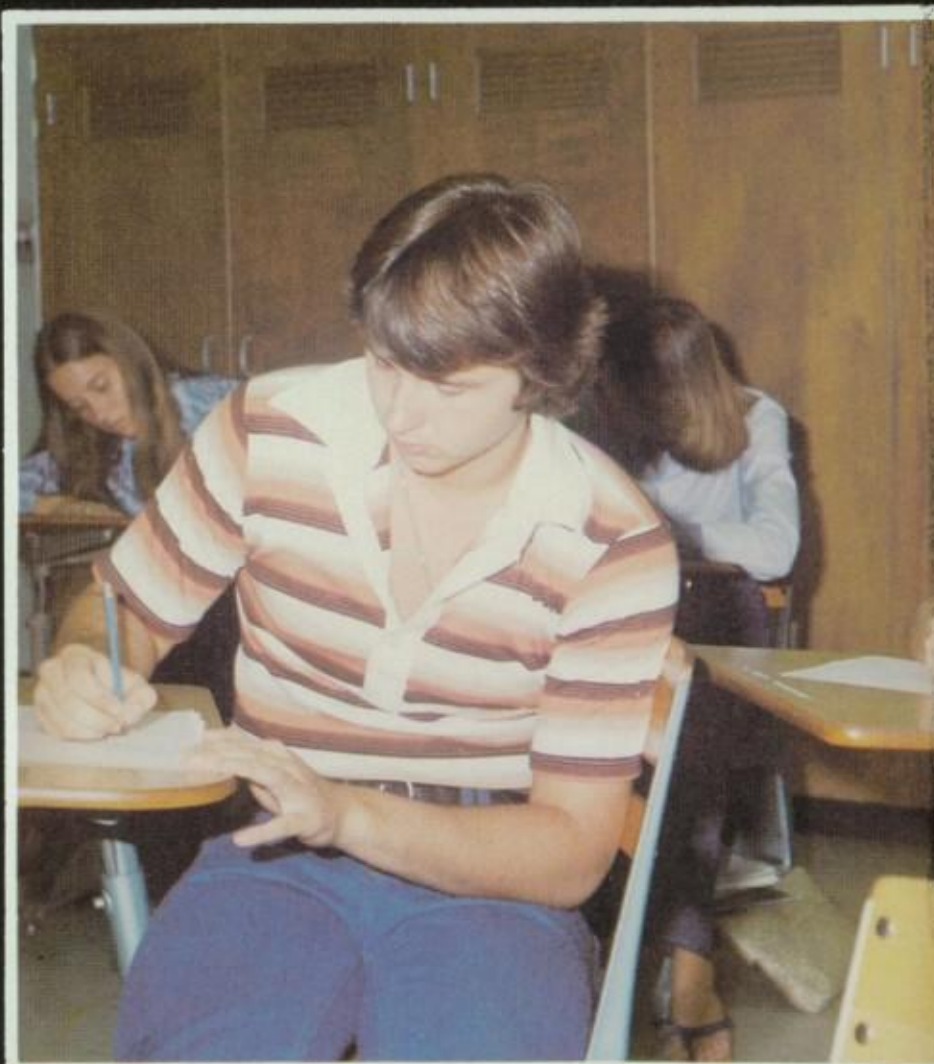

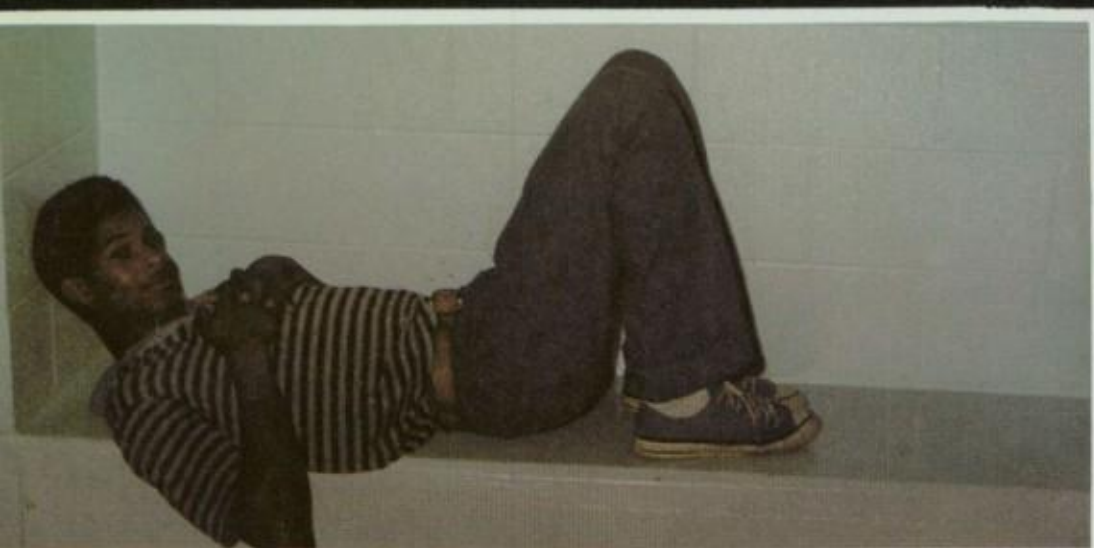

Togetherness . . .

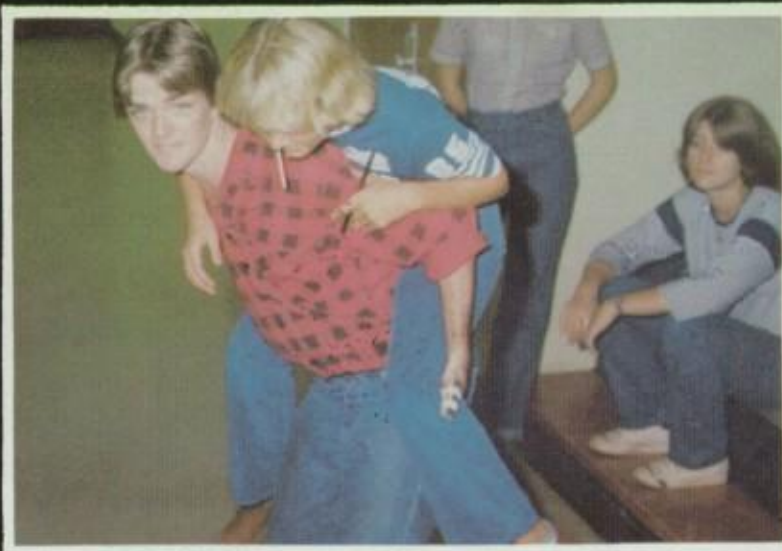

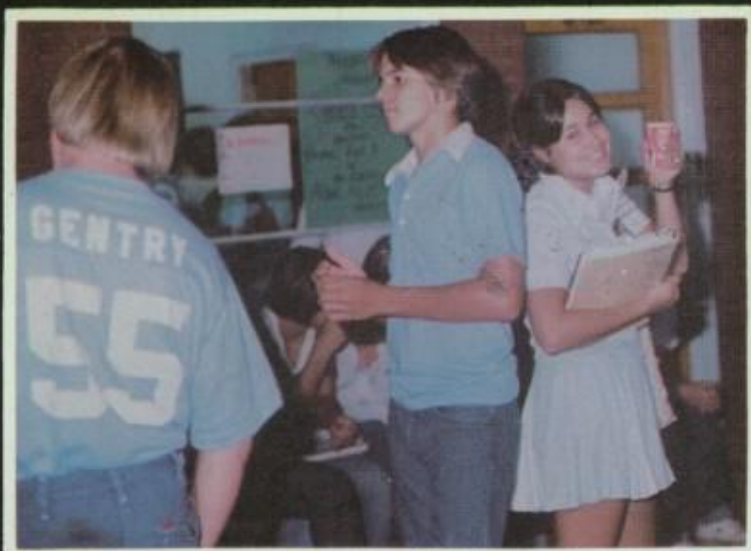

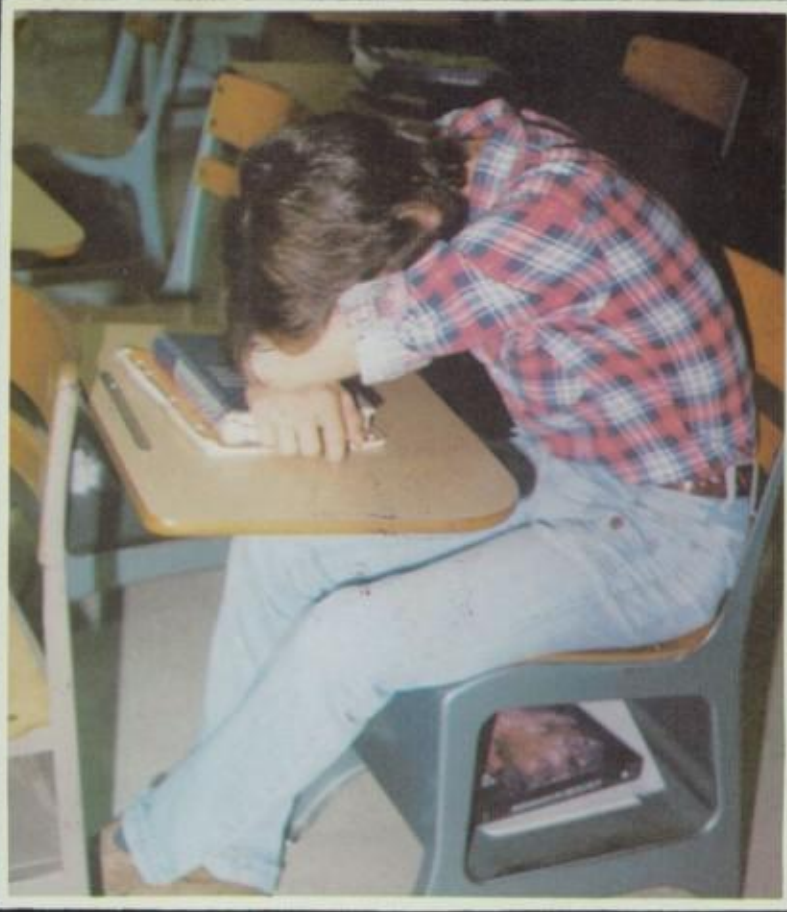

Time was such an important thing. We felt it hanging over our heads as every day slipped past us, spent going over work to be done, decisions to be made, and problems to be solved. Our age was what reminded us constantly of the time as it passed. Had it not been for the refreshing moments at lunch with our friends, the between-class conversations, and the warmth of the student body as a whole, we might have merely aged during our time here and not gained the greater perspectives on our lives that we did.

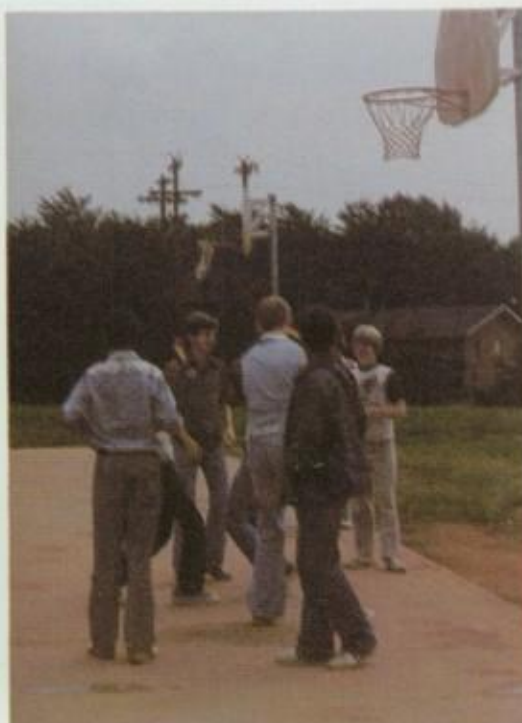

Reflections

Was school intended to be a place of learning what books had to offer, or was it intended to be a place to learn about life? We felt through the closeness of relationships we made, the lessons we learned wisely in dealing with people, and the experiences we could never forget, that we had gained some of that understanding of life. The days spent together added to each of our hearts. Caring became more than a word with a long definition. It became something we all lived, felt, and gained.

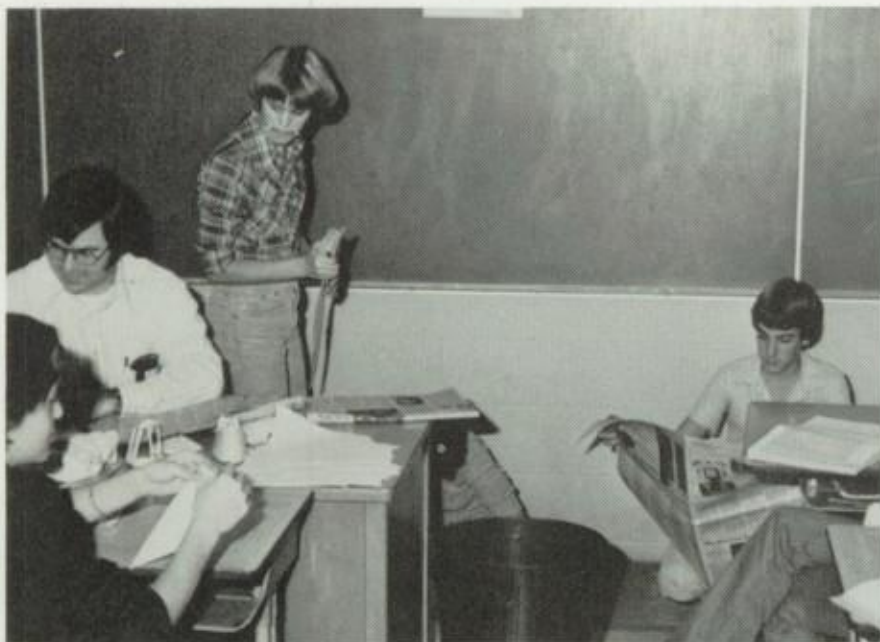

Spring brought forth a special happiness for the students at M-M. This happiness was for two events that lifted the spirits of the Student Body—the prom and graduation.

A Taste of Spring

After several weeks of planning, and only a short time of decorating, the Class of '79 presented "Until Midnight." The auditorium was transformed into a Cinderella storybook as the couples arrived in their elegant formals. The highlight of the night was music by North State, which made the prom one of the most memorable occasions of our years at Madison-Mayodan High School.

Graduation brought an end to the Spring. Due to unpleasant weather conditions, graduation ceremonies were held in the gymnasium. For the first year students were chosen to speak during the ceremony. As their tassels were turned and their tears were shed, the Seniors realized that they soon would become Freshmen again, but they would carry the memories of high school in their hearts forever.

When the Teacher Ain't Lookin'

Ever wondered why everyone calls their high school days the best years of their lives? After all wasn't it all just classes, boring teachers, dull books, and too much homework? We knew better! The students always managed to avoid the eye of authority long enough to have a little fun—risking getting demerits, suspension, or even the loss of morning break. We never meant to do any harm, and we surely weren't potential enemies of society. In the interest of good-natured fun and enjoyable lunch breaks, slipping around behind the teacher's back became more and more common. It was these brief brushes with the teacher's revenge that made high school life more liveable.

Life! You Make It
What It Is!
. . . And We Did!

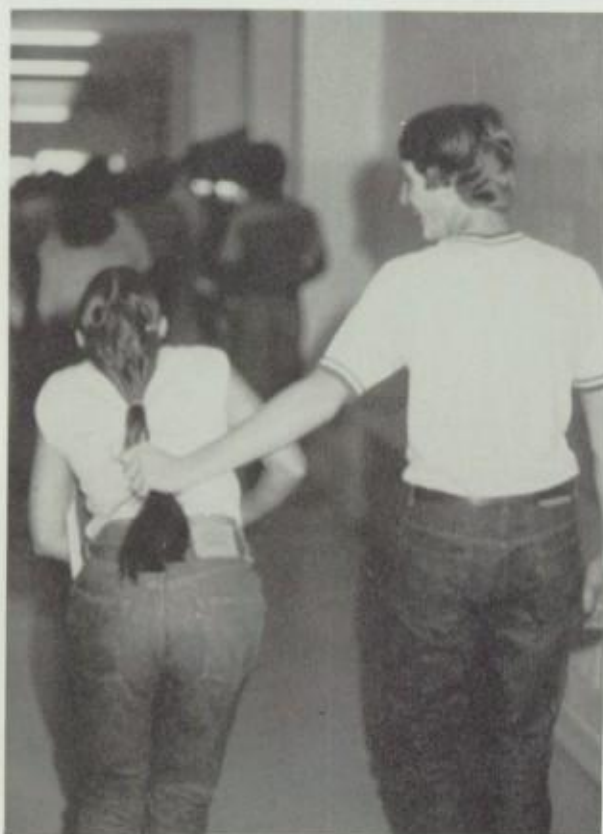

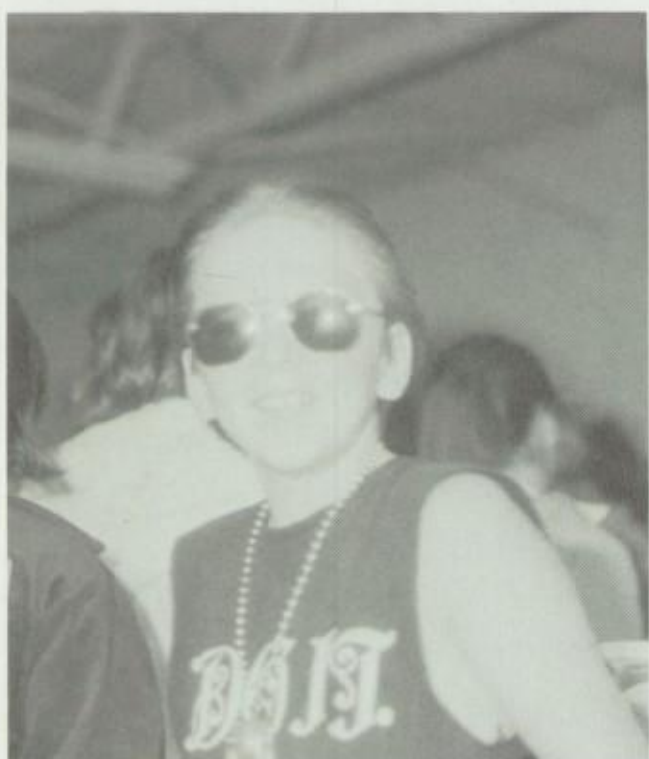

WHY ME

Everyone asks himself why he is the one who is always late for school, why his dog always chews up his homework, and why he always falls "up" the Dillard Building steps, scattering his books under the feet of a herd of stampeding students. During an average day, he fails three tests, has a flat tire, and is bitten by his own dog. He often finds himself the victim of the school bully, who beats him up and takes his lunch money. Later, he goes into the bathroom, but before he comes out, he gets ten demerits for looking as if he was smoking. At the end of the day, when the final bell rings, he steps out of his class, only to be knocked down by the 3:15 rush. Whenever he is seen, nobody wonders why he is always asking himself, "Why me? Why does everything always happen to me?"

SP-IR-IT Got Spirit Let's hear it . . .

As Homecoming approached, almost everyone was involved in some activity. Each day was devoted to some unusual way of dress, ranging from a fifties day to a little boy and girl day. Those who were not involved with the way of dress became involved in decorating their class float for a parade. The Spirit Parade, sponsored by the Student Government, paraded through downtown Madison and Mayodan. The floats were judged for originality and quality, with the Senior class float winning. The Falcon stadium was decorated by the FCA and the auditorium was decorated for a reception sponsored by the Student Government after the Homecoming ballgame.

Thank God It's Friday

From the Monday Morning Blues, which mean that the weekend is over and that a new prison term is soon to begin, throughout a week of homework, pop tests, and misplaced compositions, every student can say, "Thank God It's Friday!" Before the 3:15 bell can finish ringing on Friday afternoon, the nine hundred students at M-M High escape for a weekend of partying. Weekends are free from boring lectures which could not be endured if the classroom sleepers did not nod off and fall into the floor. For two days and three nights there is no fear of demerits or suspension. This lack of fear may account for the wild weekends enjoyed by many students who want to make their weekend full as possible and be free from any restraint.

Not only the students feel that Friday is Freedom Day, but so do the teachers whose patience was worn thin by Monday afternoon with the popping of gum, the talking in class, the throwing of paper airplanes, and the chewing of straws. The refuge of their homes provided the atmosphere in which to reoperate and to prepare to combat a new army of excuses for the lack of assignments and the lack of knowledge that a little studying provides.

Looking forward to Friday is the only thing that keeps everyone from going insane Monday through Thursday so when Friday finally does arrive everyone says and really means "Thank God It's Friday!"

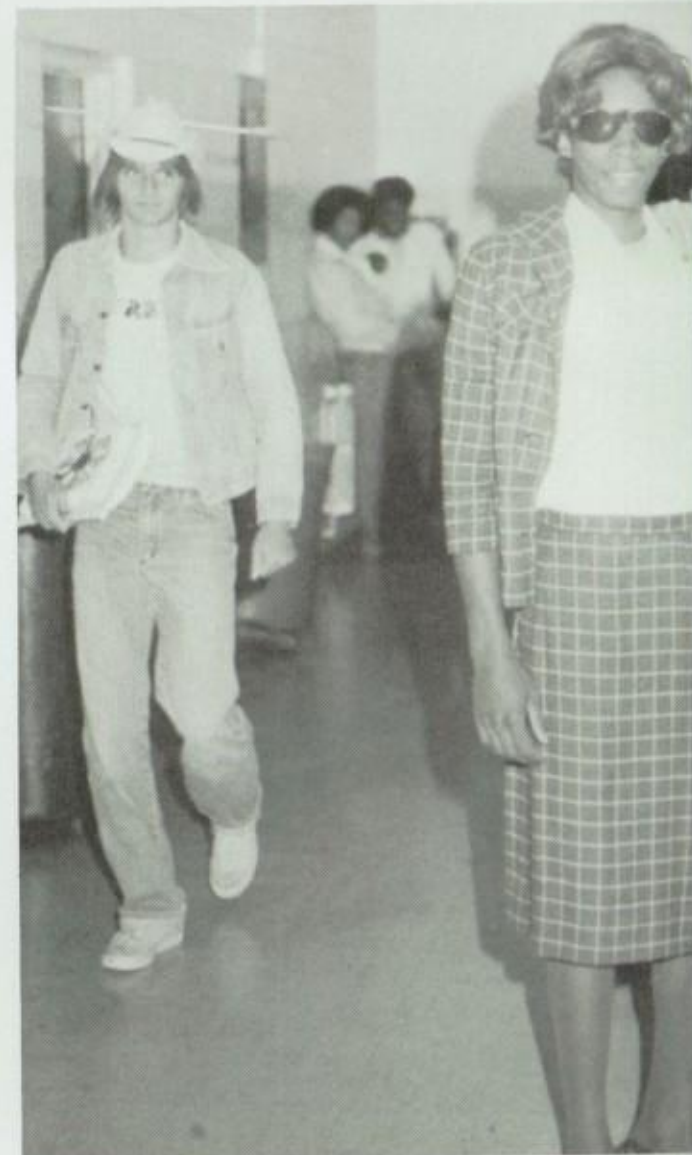

Fall Into Winter

As the season changed from fall to winter so did the activities of the student body at M-M. After the excitement of Homecoming, the Student Government sponsored a Halloween Carnival, held in the auditorium during combined lunches. Students wore Halloween costumes to school to be judged during the carnival. Each club sponsored a booth, which included fortune telling, pie throws, and a haunted house.

On November 12, the VFW of Mayodan presented a flag which was flown at the White House during World War II. The flag was dedicated to those who died during the war.

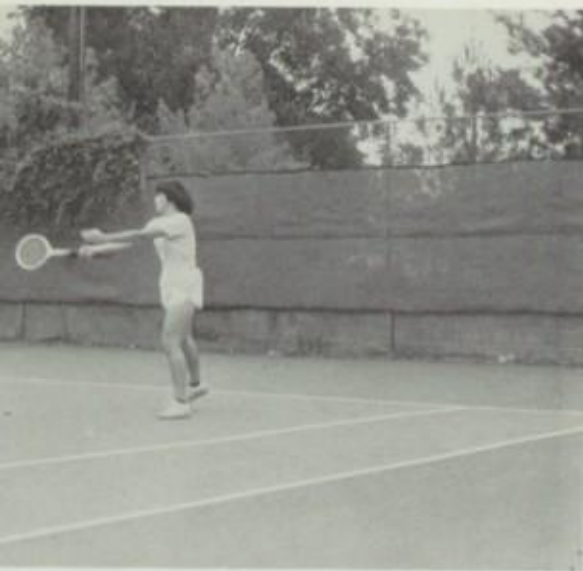

On Thanksgiving, the student body attended an assembly given by Rev. Robert Wimmer. Thanksgiving boxes were gathered by each homeroom to be given to needy families.

Many of the members were outstanding and the team is expected to be strong contenders in the conference next year.

Men's Tennis

The men's tennis team was coached by Larry Blackburn. Led by Burton Matherly, the team posted a 4-7 record. The double's team of Don Elmore and Bynum Marshall, proceeded to reach the Regional tournament at Hickory after going to the semi-finals in the sectional tournament in Winston-Salem. The team had many fine young players that will return for next year, including Matherly and Marshall, most valuable and most improved respectively. They should prove to be strong contenders in their conference next spring.

They beat every team in the conference at least once. At the end of the season, every girl had a winning record. At the fall banquet, Suzanne Clark was recognized as most valuable player and Elaine Penn was named most improved player. The team was young and all the girls will be returning next year.

Women's Softball

The girls softball team, coached by Raymond Cooke, finished the season with a 20-1 record. The team was placed first in the conference throughout the year. Four all conference players, Roxine Gentry, Wendy Knight, Stella Oliver, and Linda Carroll were chosen from the team. Stella Oliver and Della Johnson had the best batting average at .489 and .484 respectively. Roxine Gentry pitched every game and was named Most Valuable Player at the end of the season. The team reached the second round of the state playoffs where they lost their only game. The softball team was the first girl's team to reach the state playoffs in M-M's history. This was also the first year for softball at M-M since six years ago.

Girl's Volleyball

With many hours of hard work and little recognition, the girl's volleyball team greatly improved as the season went along. Coached by Marty Priddy, the team had a 5-14 record. The team beat almost everyone in at least one game but didn't always capture a match. Teresa Kellam was named most valuable and Terese Connally was named most improved. Lisa Hart was the leading server.

Golf team; Britt Tuttle, Steve Tosto, Mike Griffen, Burton Matherly, Jerry Adkins, Mitch Dillon, Leroy Myers.

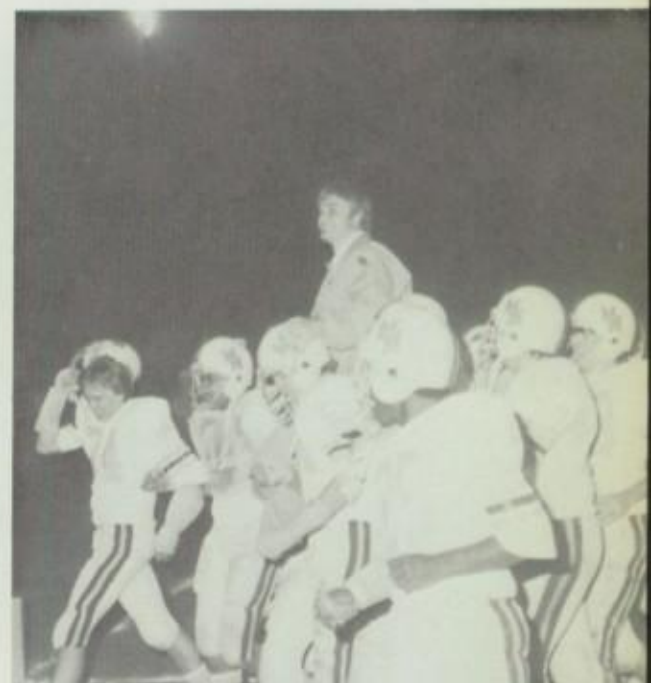

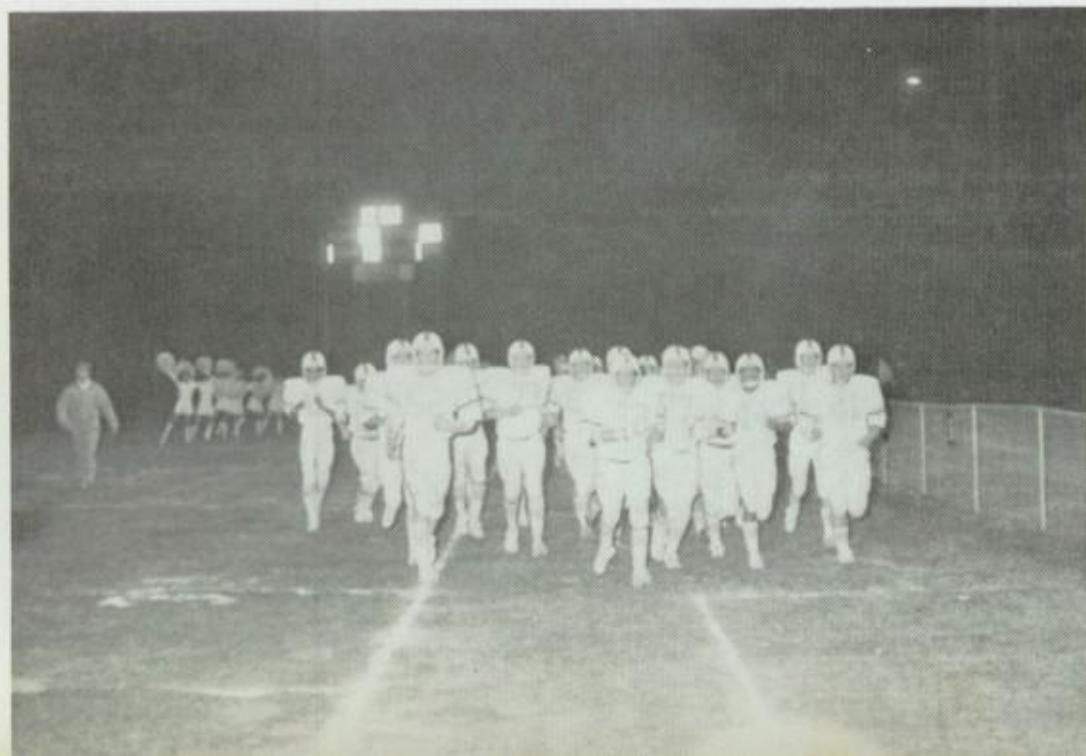

Madison-Mayodan Football

Long, hard, practices were a part of life for the members of the M-M Football Team. These practices began in the hot summer before students began school in August. Each afternoon they spent many hours practicing to improve their ability. Many frustrating nights, the team felt down because they couldn't quite get things going. They improved with every game as the season went along. But they had their night coming. The team had an outstanding game against Rockingham, where they trampled the Panthers 35-6. At the end of the season, three all conference players were chosen. They were Danny Scales, Danny Joyce, and Byron Sharron. Under a new coach, Dave Gutshall, the team finished with a 2-8 record. At the end of the season, a fall banquet was held where Danny Scales was chosen as most valuable player and Bynum Marshall was chosen as most improved.

J.V. Football

The JV Football team, coached by James Kirkpatrick, compiled a 2-7-1 record at the end of the season. They tied with Eastern Guilford in the middle of the season and beat Rockingham County impressively at the end of the season. These young men worked hard to prepare themselves for the varsity squad. Many of the bigger players were placed on the varsity due to lack of interest. With more support from the younger players, the JV could develop into a winning team next year.

Varsity Basketball

Hard work, undying determination, and grueling hours of practice all helped to make this years Varsity Basketball season a successful one. Each player's effort reflected the team's 11-9 record in regular conference play. The record was disappointing for the team which lost three starting players from last year. Led by Danny Scales and Charles Dalton, the team struggled throughout the year to keep a respectable record. The team was in a slump and lost the last three games in the regular conference play. The team had their exciting nights as they downed Rockingham in the final minutes of a game, 63-61, on free throws by Danny Scales. The team was coached by Leroy Myers, who was assisted by a volunteer, Donnie Montgomery.

The team had the trouble of finding the correct combination for guards throughout the season. Starting positions for guard were jostled around, resulting in the recruit of two sophomores from the J.V. team. A Senior appreciation night was held in honor of the Senior players which included Charles Dalton, Danny Scales, Robert Wimmer, Burton Matherly, Robert Summers, and Carl Scales. The M-M team, young and only slightly experienced, is expected to grow to be a bigger and stronger team in the conference next year.

Girl's Basketball

With a disappointing beginning, the Lady Falcons began to shape up as the year went along. Coached by Dean Knight, the girls continued to keep a winning season. Determination and skill brought initial victories to the Falcon's. Led by senior Teresa Kellam, the team had an impressive win over Northwest Guilford. This marked the first victory over the Vikings in four straight seasons. The team was young and had only one other senior starter, DeLee Anderson. The team should be strong contenders in the conference with so many young players. More freshmen were placed on the team than ever before. With all this talented youth, they certainly can't go wrong.

Ninth Grade Basketball

The Ninth Grade Basketball Team, coached by James Kirkpatrick, experienced a difficult season. Many freshman were transferred to the JV squad, leaving the ninth grade with very few players. Led by Ron McGhin, the team worked hard at practice. Many times it was difficult for the teams to practice because the area didn't provide enough facilities necessary for practice. The JV squad will be expecting some hard workers from the freshmen next year.

J.V. Basketball

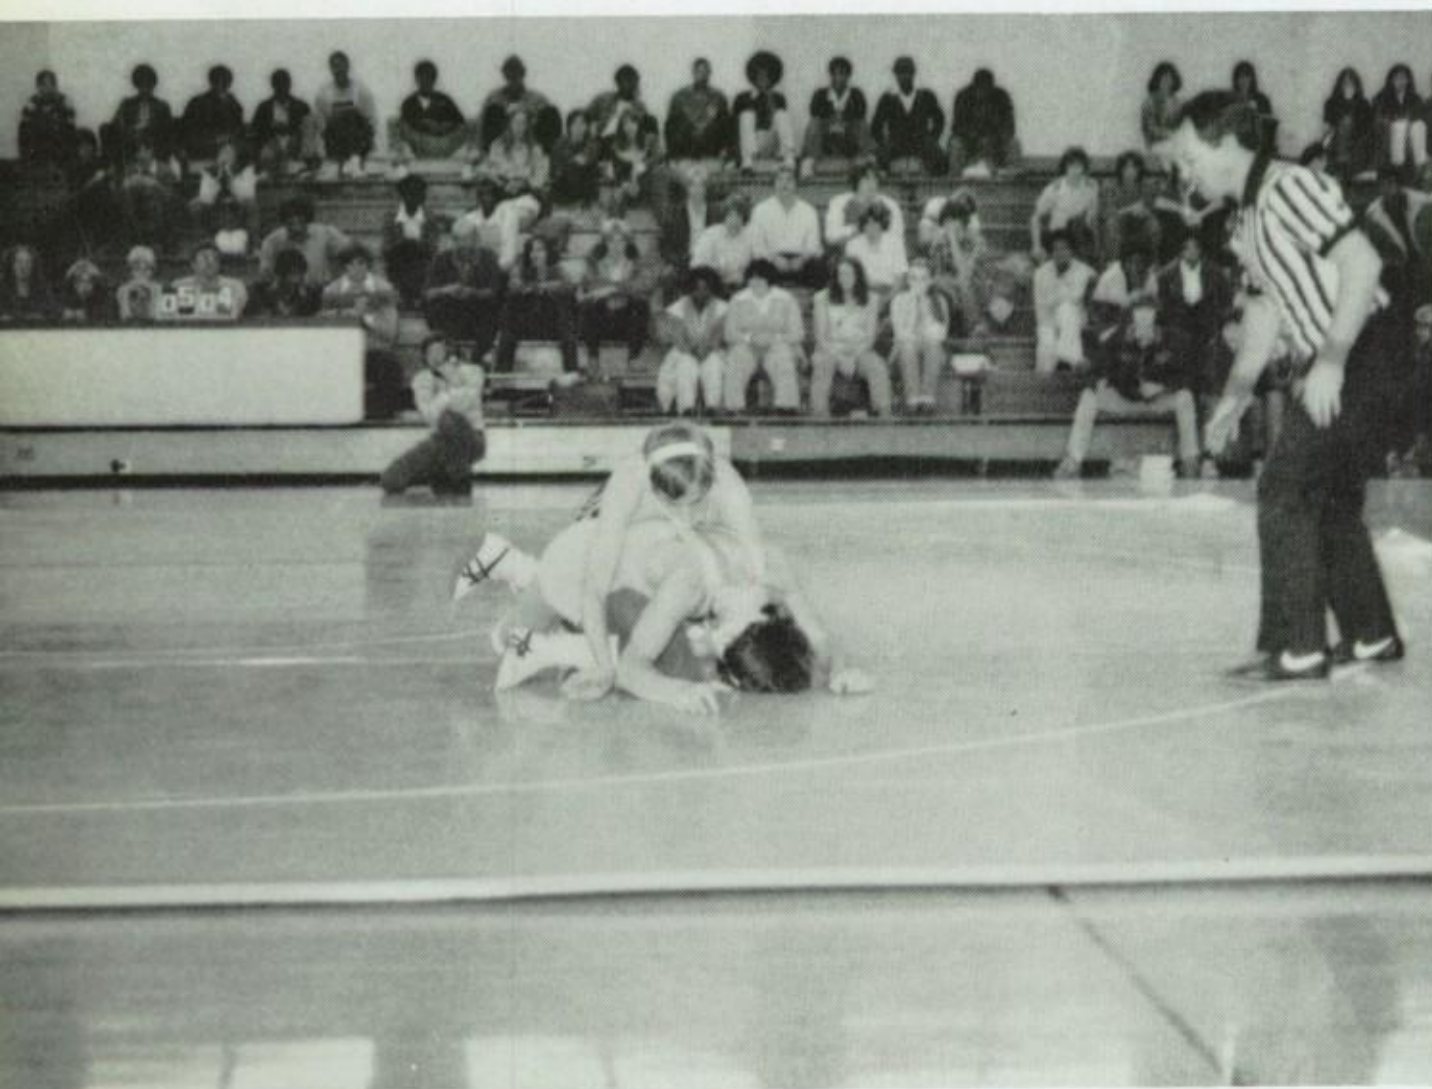

With many of the sophomores being promoted to the varsity, the JV basketball team struggled throughout the year. The team had five losses by a total of five points. Lack of height and experience hindered the team during the season. The team, coached by Ray Cooke, managed to stay in the middle of the conference standing. The main objective was to play every player to develop for future varsity teams. At the end of the season, the team compiled a 7-13 record.

Men's Wrestling

The wrestling team experienced a rebuilding year, because wrestling was extinct for two years. The team, coached by Mr. Frey, remained fifth in the conference during the regular season. Wrestling requires a strict diet and hard practice to keep in shape. Wrestlers with the best records were David Powell, Danny Hopper, Danny Joyce, Mitch Williams, and Dexter Welch. They ended the regular season with a 6-8 record. Mat maids for the wrestling team were Ginger Hopper, Angie Stevens, Thomasa Williams, and Regina Moore.

Tim,
 It has been a good year. But there a lot to do still. You shown me that your willing to work hard and pay the price. few men are willing to do that. Keep lifting weights so you look good at the beach.

See you this summer

Varsity Cheerleaders

Whether they happened to be doing stunts, practicing routines, or learning new chants, the M-M Cheerleaders very rarely took a break from their spirit promoting activities. Trying to get students to show their spirit enthusiastically became a full time job for the cheerleaders. Aching muscles and numerous cases of lost voices plagued many squad members as they learned the cheers for the upcoming game. Carolyn Thacker was the advisor to both varsity and junior varsity squads.

WHO'S WHO IN '79

During the course of the year, many people accomplished certain feats which deserve recognition. The faculty at M-M was asked to choose twelve students whom they felt deserve recognition as a Who's Who. Due to a tie, thirteen worthy people were chosen as 1979's Who's Who.

A well rounded student, BURTON MATHERLY, contributed to M-M High not only through academics but by extracurricular activities as well. He participated in the National Honor Society, Beta Club, Fine Arts Club, FCA, Foreign Language Club, Class Officer, Marshall, High I.Q. Bowl, Governor's School, Who's Who Among American High School Students, golf team, basketball team and most valuable player in tennis.

Because she has used her talents to bring joy to others, because she has worked hard to excel academically, because she has given leadership in Student Legislature, class office, clubs, and cheerleading, because she has exemplified a kind, caring attitude, VAUGHAN PENN has been selected for Who's Who.

His optimism has given us an example. His constant smile has brightened our days. His enthusiasm has helped accomplish our tasks. His participation has enlivened our classes. His friendship has enriched our lives. For his achievements we have chosen EVERETT DUDLEY for Who's Who.

Her love and concern for M-M Senior High and the students here, are truly shown in her active involvement in the schools' organizations and activities. GINGER HOPPER, has been Class President in the tenth and eleventh grades. A member of the Student Legislature, FCA, Junioresettes, Beta Club, Annual Staff, Girls Track, Wrestling Team Manager, Varsity Chief Cheerleader, and Homecoming Queen. But even after the honors listed, there is still one other attribute; the most important. She has the courage to be herself, showing compassion and openness in the things she does and the people who know her. This and Ginger's other attributes truly make her a worthy selection to Who's Who.

She embodies the spirit of an outstanding student through her enthusiastic participation in and leadership of virtually every aspect of student life. Through her joy in so many facets of life, she has set a high standard for others in club work, class office, Student Legislature, and academics. She has touched many lives with her generosity and concern for others. For these reasons, KIM FORTANBARY has been selected for Who's Who.

A jubilant, self-radiating, articulate person who is always willing to serve her school and community. A model student who puts her best foot forward with the determination to succeed. There are indeed few students of her age who know who they are and where they're going, SANDRA BLACKSTOCK is such a person.

For her warm personality, for her dedication to athletics, for her leadership as a class officer, for her enthusiasm in Student Legislature, for her active participation in club work, for her kindness, loyalty, and joy in friendships, DELEE ANDERSON has been selected for Who's Who.

Capable, sensitive, enthusiastic, intelligent, mature, artistic, energetic, well-rounded, ambitious, and involved are but a few of the many adjectives that could be used to describe JEFF BOWMAN, a 1979 Who's Who.

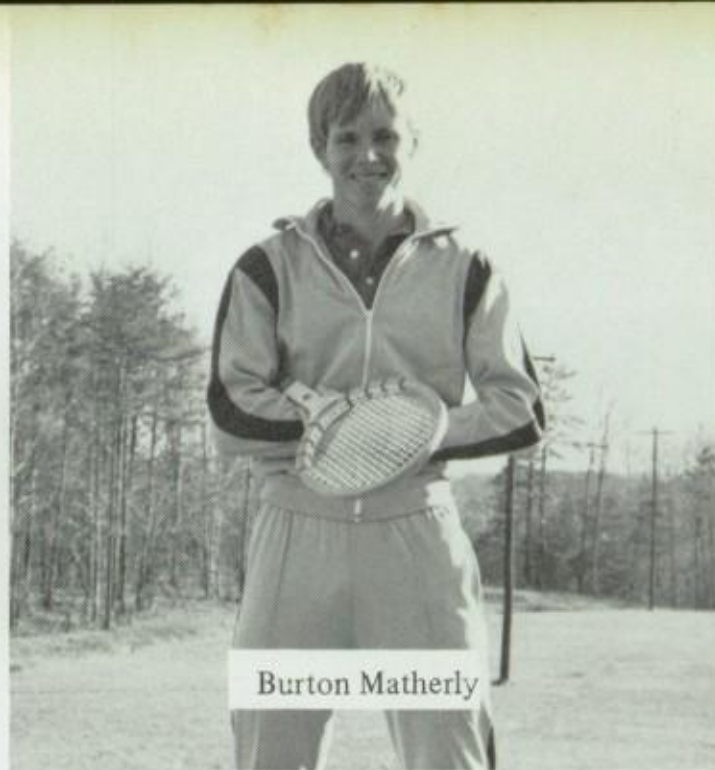

A young lady with outstanding dedication, charm, enthusiasm, and ability describes BETH LEWIS. Her membership and leadership in the Fine Arts Club, Foreign Language Club, Student Legislature, Civinettes, and Junioresettes indicate her well-rounded interests and contributions to the high school. Love of music and the band and her superior ability as drum major for the last three years has gained her well-deserved and considerable recognition and admiration. All of these achievements, plus her pleasing personality, unassuming manner, strength of character and dedication to excellence, make Beth an excellent choice for Who's Who.

DANNY SCALES has had many success stories at Madison-Mayodan in athletics and leadership. Danny has received many honors such as being all-conference and most valuable in football, a standout basketball forward, and one of the all time leaders in track and field. Danny has not only obtained many achievement in athletics, but has the ability to lead other young men to obtain their goals.

DANNY JOYCE has been an outstanding student at Madison-Mayodan High School. He was a member of the Beta Club, the Student Legislature, and the VICA Club. He was very active in Athletics, being on the wrestling team, and he played football for four years, and was elected All-conference his senior year. This with a delightful personality makes Danny worthy of Who's Who.

TERESA KELLAM is a member of Who's Who because she is very personable and she loves to be involved. Her beaming smile is her trademark whenever one sees her, and her leadership qualities are exhibited through her participation in the various clubs and organizations of the school, as well as in athletics. In addition, one finds that she is always willing to listen and lend a helping hand.

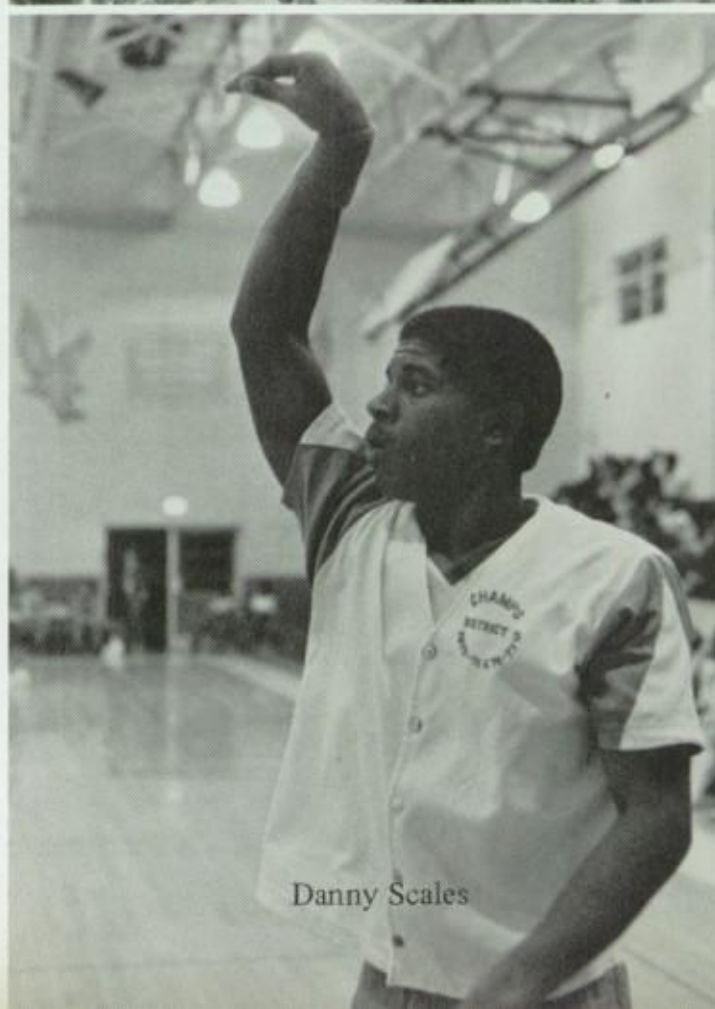

The Editor-in-chief of the FALCON, HEIDI KENT, possesses many qualities that make her deserving of this honor; versatility, affability, scholarly interests, patience, diligence, and dedication. Her activities include membership in the Beta Club, Student Government, Fine Arts Club, and the Foreign Language Club. Qualities and activities such as these make her truly worthy of Who's Who.

Life at M-M

Silence filled the deserted halls as the hands on the clock slowly moved toward 3:15 p.m. Suddenly at the sound of the bell, doors flew open in unison. Noises of slamming lockers and exited voices filled the air. For a couple of minutes, anyone standing near a doorway became swept outside by masses of humanity streaming to their cars and to freedom. Students cast aside their books and homework as they thought of the more exiting events to come. For some, the afternoons passed with hours of practicing band routines or improving their athletic ability. Others chose to spend time with various club projects. Many times people just got together and spent the hours talking or partying. Dances and concerts provided by both local and international groups gave students the chance to get together and do something out of the ordinary. All too soon, the time came to start settling down to more serious things.

WE'RE NOT THE BEST...

We're better than the best!

MADISON - MAYODAN'S ANIMAL HOUSE

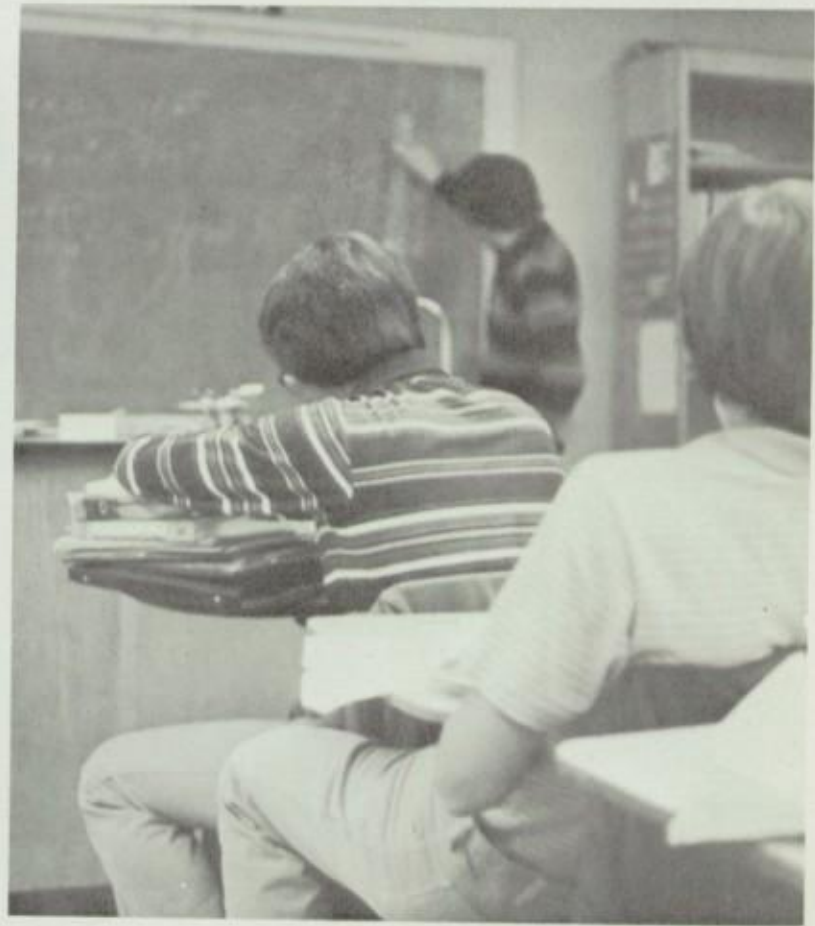

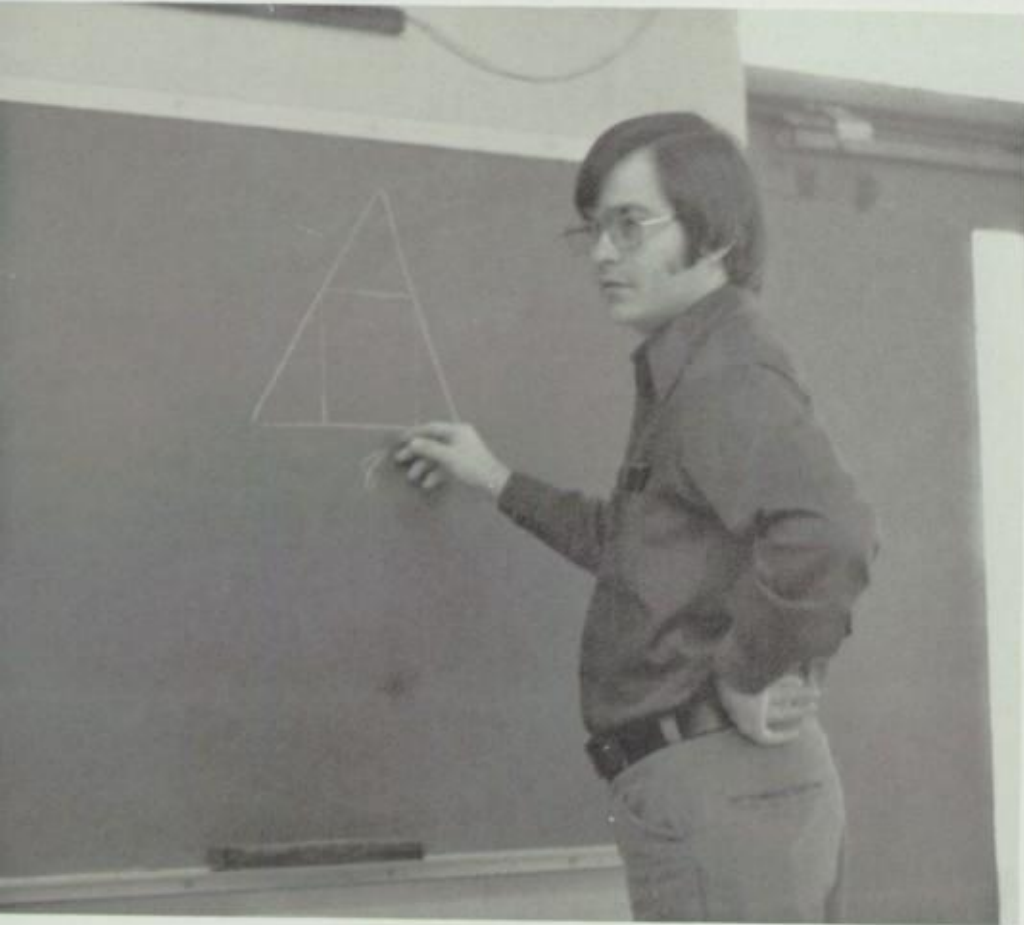

Tests Trouble Students at M-M

Accumulations of learning were made throughout the year. By means of taking notes, reading, and applying theory, students were able to increase their knowledge. Teachers lectured and assigned impossible projects. Reasons for this work became evident all too soon. Tests in the students classes included trivia which the students had acquired at one time or another. Competency tests, given to the Juniors, proved to be difficult as well as bothersome. Upperclassmen looked toward taking college board and achievement tests. Along with these tests, problems arose in all shapes, sizes, and forms. Questions seemed to have no answers. Accompanying the regular tests during the nine weeks were the mid-term exams, the ultimate in tests. Somehow the majority of the students struggled through the year, many with high grades and high honors. Students were tested on any and all the knowledge they acquired. To students, tests administered by their teachers and other faculty members became a reality too real to ignore.

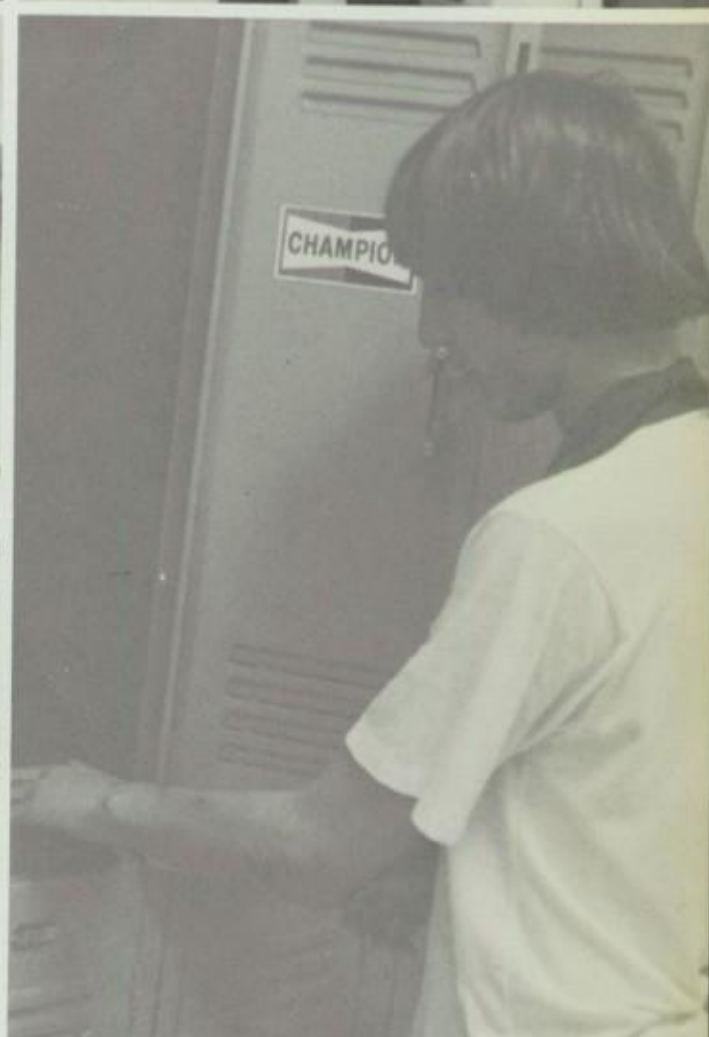

Dutch,
 It's been nice getting to know you this year. You are a "wild & crazy" guy. You really gave me a lot of laughs this year & I hope we get to know each other better next year. Have a nice summer.

Love ya,
 Jane
 Sneed

M-M Annual Staff

A good yearbook is the result of a team effort. Each individual, serving as a part of the whole, must contribute his or her share. Thus, diversified efforts congealed to form a unified production—Falcon '79. The Falcon staff would like to extend best wishes to a happy future to all who read this book. In ten years it will be hauled down from the upper shelves of a closet. This book consumed many hours, and only this, the finished product, proves whether or not it was worth it. The Falcon staff does not try to interpret the happenings of the school year of 1978-1979, only to put them forward for examination. This book is not dedicated to any one person, but to the entire school. For anyone who had anything to do with Madison-Mayodan High School during this school year, here is the '79 Falcon.

To the following we give our special thanks and sincere appreciation: Susan Vernon, Alex Knight, Dave Marshburn, Dyson Rodenbough, The Messenger, Terry Taylor, and Brad Kent.

Memories perish with the passing of time. Never constant, the collage of people and events which surrounds each of us fades and withers, becoming a mere spectre of its former reality. Dusty attics and dirty shelves will serve as time capsules, preserving only our tangible record of friends and experiences in high school—the yearbook. Not unlike Pandora's box, '79 Falcon imprisons our memories, and, having been opened, frees the images which haunt its pages. In the future, when a remembrance of high school grows faint, we need only to open our annual and look back to the joys of the past.

As editor, I was not its creator, but you, the students at M-M High, are the ones who deserve a special thanks, along with the administration, and last but not least, the Falcon staff members. An encouraging word from a friend, an understanding smile from a teacher when he sees your homework isn't quite done, an outsider asking how things are going with the yearbook, a desire to accomplish something, because you know it isn't for yourself, but for the students—these are the rewards gained by every yearbook editor. No one can truly appreciate the blood, sweat, tears, and endless hours spent cropping pictures, writing copy, and creating layouts.

I would like to thank Mrs. Scott for being patient with me when I was behind. Another thanks to my special friend, Randy, who patiently waited for me to finish my work. And above all, to my brother, Brad, whose ideas and inspiration helped me to complete this book.
